Forever Love the Will of God!

When you allow your consciousness to soar beyond the bounds of your human creation, you begin to understand how glorious is the Body of God. Many often find themselves immersed in the day-to-day life that does not allow them to forge their True Identity. Therefore, there is a breach in the flow of what the Presence of God would convey to the outer vehicles moment to moment. And many find themselves wanting for that communion, striving in all manner of ways, but most of which are the ways of the world.

You have come to know certain disciplines of the Law wherein you are able to call forth that Light, call forth that Momentum of God, and establish that Presence — if not for the entirety of your day-to-day life, certainly in those critical times when you must make wise decisions for your lifestream.

The Will of God for many is intangible, for they have been so long under the guise of their own human will, their human ego, the desires of the emotional body and of the flesh. Not having learned how to forge the communion with God by the disciplines that many of you have come to know leaves them bereft upon the shores, beaten by the human riptides of thought and feeling.

This, we, the Ascended Ones, would not wish for any of the Sons and Daughters of God. But every lifestream must awaken to that decision to be within the Presence of God for themselves. Oftimes they do not even know that a decision must be made. For long, long ago the lifestream left the precinct and the Radiance of the Presence of God and entered into worldly living, masquerading as the Nature of God. Many have entered into so-called religious studies, both East and West, buying into the understanding woven out of the human mind of another that surely God would bestow upon them all his Gifts and Graces if they would but follow that particular way. Where is Christ Discrimination within the fabric of the lives of these Sons and Daughters of God? Is it so completely lost that many will not find their way save they first endure great cataclysm?

In speaking to you, the disciples and students of the Ascended Master Teachings, you understand well what I AM speaking of. Many of you have come to this awareness because you found no other place to turn save to that internal God, your own I AM Presence, and to be in the midst of a company of others that believed as you believe, that honored the Presence of God as you honor. You were called to come to this Altar. How blessed you are to know that inner Voice of your own God Presence, to have received the prompting and had the clarity of consciousness and Christ Discrimination to recognize the Ascended Master Vibration, the Teachings and the Consciousness that would resonate with your own Threefold Flame and the momentum that your God Presence desired for you to follow. So once more you are called to follow, not the human ego, the human pride, or the human consciousness, but to follow the Voice of your own God Presence and have that Voice expanded, multiplied by your communion with the Holy Angels, with the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Beings.

When you make the election to go beyond what you have already experienced, you will find there are new vistas, new horizons for you to behold as you continue your journey. For though you have embraced the Presence of God, have made room for that Presence in your life, and daily strive to maintain your disciplines, I, Himalaya, am here to announce to you there is more!

How glorious it is to know that there is more of the Presence that you can attain to in your life. No matter how far you travel in consciousness, how much you expand the Light in your vehicles, how disciplined you may be at present, there is always more of God to realize.

Realization means that you have successfully internalized certain key elements of the Fabric of God Consciousness in all of the varied dimensions that God would have you maintain. Then, at any given time and cycle, you are sure to find new dimensions that your Mighty I AM Presence has elected for you to begin to draw forth into full realization of your life. This is why one can never become bored in the sameness of God; because, blessed hearts, your realization of the Presence of God is always changing, always expanding, revealing new dimensions, new awareness, new momentum. And that, blessed hearts, is the glorious Opportunity that abounds in the Grace that God continually bestows upon you by your striving, listening, absorbing God Consciousness, and adhering to every detail that you are required to obtain.

There are all manner of ways in which your day-to-day life is utilized by your own God Presence to teach you. Any aspect of the Qualities of God, the Virtues of the Christ, and all the varied dimensions within each Divine Ideal of the way of life that you must live, all these your Presence sets in motion — challenges, situations, relationships — all so that you might develop the awareness of God at work in your life. And as you make the right choices, always allowing for your Presence to flow through the Threefold Flame of your Heart and unfurl into those areas of life, you will be fulfilling the Will of God.

When you move into the Christ Consciousness, allowing for your own momentum of God Good to be that driving force in your life, to clear away the debris that has in times past called you into a situation, a path that led away from the Presence of God that did not allow for the Will of God to be present, then, blessed hearts, you will begin to have more of the internalization of that Christ Consciousness taking hold in your life. You cannot take it for granted. It is a constant that must be maintained. And surely, as my Presence will establish in your world a certain increment of the Momentum of my own Mastery, you, blessed hearts, must have something that that Momentum can play upon. There must be, even if so very slight, an erg of energy established as the Will of God already present and active in your life for you to begin to appreciate how that momentum of yours can be expanded in my Presence.

Likewise, you must have the awareness, in your outer consciousness, of your own vibration. You must take stock of who you are, how you approach life. What is it that absorbs most of your time and attention? What do you wish to gain as a result of your attention feeding into those areas of life? Do you love the brothers and sisters of Light with whom you come in contact? Do you honor and respect the Flame of God within them? Is the Presence of God in evidence in their life? These are questions, blessed hearts, that are the constant in your life, that allow your own Mighty I AM Presence to illumine to your outer mind the areas that require the change that you have come to know is that right change, that right momentum that you desire within your heart.

To ignore the promptings that you have received of the change that is required is a travesty against your own God Presence, to say nothing of the Momentums that the Ascended and Cosmic Beings have drawn forth by way of Dispensation for your lifestream. Taking responsibility for your life and allowing for that Flame of God that truly burns upon the Altar of your Heart to expand and hold fast to the level of Consciousness that your Presence has conveyed as God Direction and God Good — this, blessed hearts, will establish momentums for you that lead to your own attainment and mastery.

But if you are constantly ignoring what your Presence announces to you upon the Altar of your Heart as correction, change, direction that must occur, clarity that you must obtain — all of these considerations, blessed hearts, would but bring you into a greater association and communion with your own Presence. If there is the constant ignorance of these promptings, then you may find for a time that you will be required to stand alone, sustained by the Light of the Threefold Flame that you have managed to externalize, making your way back to our Communion once more.

Does this sound harsh? Does this portend an uncaring God in your life? It is not. And it does not mean that God, your own Presence, does not love you. On the contrary, it is the greatest Love of God that is always demanding the very best from you, requiring that you do your part in striving, in trying with every erg of energy, and then holding fast to the Light of God as you await the Direction of your Presence.

No initiate on the Path has ever been able to circumvent these Initiations. The very Ascended and Cosmic Beings that address you from this Altar have, one and all, learned and passed these same Initiations, garnering great Momentum in their own awareness of God and how to draw forth that Momentum of God Consciousness at will. You are a Son and Daughter of God. You have all of the Opportunity availed to you that you can utilize wisely. Where there is misuse of Opportunity, that Opportunity will drop away, leaving you to wonder how you have missed the mark, striving to address whatever has gone wrong, what must change and be transmuted, what Momentum of God must be drawn into your life through your disciplines. All of these questions you should ask if you find yourself outside of the daily communion and Momentum of the Nature of your own God Presence flooding into your life.

How I would love to have each one who is a sincere student of the Ascended Master Teachings that desires their Ascension in the Light and the Mastery and attunement with their own God Presence to come and be in my Presence, if only for one hour, in my Retreat. Surely you must realize that a certain level of attainment must already have been garnered to enter my Retreat and be in my Presence in that Retreat. For when I come to you as I AM today, there is a mitigating of my Momentum according to your attainment where you are. However, when you come to me, you have the full thrust of my Momentum; and thus, you must be able to hold enough of your own God Presence in your vehicles of consciousness, even in the Christ Consciousness, so that you might hold to the conscious awareness of what is at work in our Communion.

Your personal attainment does not come by the Ascended Masters merely giving you their Attainment. Our Momentum in God Consciousness is released to show you the example that you can register on your vehicles of consciousness as Vibration, as Teaching and instruction, to retain the co-measurement once you have settled back into your own forcefield. In the quiet, in the silence, will you register, will you remember the Momentum when you were in Himalaya's Presence? Is my Momentum still with you, or has it faded away, leaving you to look around and wonder who you truly are?

I would have you ever constantly searching out your own God Presence, even in the midst of all your affairs. For it is when you are capable of holding on to the Momentum of your own Individual I AM Presence that that Presence can flow easily into your affairs, directing you to the right action, the right vibration, and ultimately fulfilling the Divine Will of your Presence.

Holding to the Consciousness of your own God Presence is not easy, but it does become more effortless as you practice. For yes, blessed hearts, eventually you will gain such a momentum that, within a blink of an eye, you will be in the Heart of your own God Presence. And your Presence will speak volumes to you, instructing you even in the immediacy of the hour. Do not think that merely because you have not already reached the mountaintop where your Presence resides that somehow it is not possible for you. It only means, blessed hearts, that you must continue to whittle away all of the rough edges of your life — refining, honing, fashioning every aspect of your life to be that Diamond of the Christ Consciousness that resides upon the Altar of your Heart.

You did not come to be the outer person that you are today overnight. Many lifetimes of living outside of the brooding Presence of God have made their mark upon you; and thus, you must have patience. But all the while you are exercising patience, you are striving with all your might! For you know that one lifetime is really very short in comparison to the many lifetimes in which you have lived in the physical body; and therefore, you desire to accomplish all that your Presence has foretold that you are capable of in this incarnation. Your Presence has not only announced this to your own Heart Flame as the written record of this lifetime for you, but it has telegraphed its Will throughout the greater Will of the Allness of God! And thus, all of the vastness of God will coalesce and come together for you individually when you make yourself ready for the Will of the One God.

Holding fast to that Will is not easy. It requires you to oftentimes go through what you have heard as the eye of the needle, refining all of your vehicles of consciousness so that when you are called in that refinement to move into the vastness of the conscious awareness of the Infinite Mind of God, you will not be held back by lesser vibrations than the Christ.

I hold in my gaze your Victory so that as you go through all that is required of you in this lifetime by your Presence, you will have the attunement with the Heart of God sufficient to receive the reinforcements that I, Himalaya, and every Ascended and Cosmic Being would bestow upon you; so that at the end of the day, you will rest in the arms of your own God Presence, knowing that all that you have accomplished in that day is worthy to lay upon the Altar of the Most High. What a glorious day that will be — when every erg of energy that has passed through you has registered a high enough Vibration to abide forever within the Momentums of your Causal Body as God Victory!

Let your Crown receive the Fire of Illumination's Flame so that you might recognize what is right before you that your Presence desires to reveal. Let your Crown so fire that you are elevated in consciousness sufficiently to draw the Mother Light of the Kundalini Fires through your spiritual centers and align you in that Rod of Power that transfers to your outer vehicles on the instant the Will of God.

I, Himalaya, will reside at this Altar for the next twenty-four hours for those who wish to come and bathe in my Momentum of the Will of God. Let the forcefield be sealed and protected, and let your consciousness be so bathed in my Momentum that you will forever Love the Will of God.

Ever Constant in God, I AM
