You Never Know When I Will Be Standing beside You

Hail, Sons and Daughters of God!

I, Michael the Archangel, stand in the Earth, and I will continue to stand until each Son and Daughter of God has won the Victory of their Ascension. For, yes, you never know when I will be standing beside you, Beloved. It is my desire that each one achieve the fulfillment of their final Victory. Even now we celebrate Victory together as we honor all those who stand for your Freedom in the Earth. For I have many who respond to my Flame — those on the front lines of the battlefields, those standing for your protection during this time of enlightenment that offers opportunity for all mankind of Earth to come into their Christ Consciousness and know what is right, what is wrong, and where to draw the line in the sand that must not be crossed.

The Defenders of Freedom

Yes, Beloved, I speak of those who defend the Flame of Freedom in all armed forces across the land and in every country. I speak of those who defend your cities, who protect and guard you from harm. I speak of those who have the inherent Christ Consciousness aborning within their Heart, who know a just cause worthy of the Flame of their Christhood galvanized into valiant action.

You see, Beloved, from the beginning of time throughout every civilization and every generation, there have been those who have come to lead the way, showing mankind the right course of conduct to take. It is important to understand that you need Faith to follow our leadership when it is presented to you. This is where my Legions of Angels come into play, for oft times you struggle just to allow your own intrinsic Faith within your Heart to unfurl and take dominion in your life. Therefore, I, Archangel Michael, stand in your own forcefield to wield my Sword of Blue Flame, directing it into all conditions of doubt, fear, human questioning and records of death that are yet present in your own life and in the lives of all those who are destined to lead, protect and defend the Flame of God.

Celebrate and Understand Your Christhood

My Holy Angels stand with me as we together survey the course of human history. They see so clearly the propensities to which mankind has fallen sway — when there has been the lack of the Flame of Faith, of Hope, and of Charity burning on the Altar of the Heart. Know, Beloved, that it is the desire of my Heart that each one be drawn closer to the Flame of God and to the direct realization of their own Christhood at this Christmastide. As you celebrate the birth of one Christ, you likewise celebrate the birth of your own Christhood, allowing the Holy Angels entrée into your midst to establish a charged forcefield about you, one that affords these attending Angels a radiance compatible with their own wherein to prepare your finer vehicles, your physical body, and your surroundings.

You may indeed be unaware of these Angels who minister to you. You may not even know when I am in your midst, standing beside you, defending you from a situation that you do not have the foresight or the vision to perceive. I may be there! Would you turn your back and not entertain that leadership which I would provide you? I tell you, Beloved, there have been many occasions where Sons and Daughters of God have entered into the fray knowing full well that they were not following the dictates of their own Christ attunement. This is sad indeed. You are called upon to maintain the Christ Consciousness, to sustain the Faith of your own God Presence for each of your actions, for all of the thoughts that course through your brain, and yes, Beloved, for all of the energies that emanate from your countenance so that you may always be held steadfast within the embrace of the Angels assigned to your very own personal Heart Flame for your protection.

The Constancy of Your Calls Assures Protection

Building a momentum of your calls to my Flame and to entertaining these Holy Angels establishes a Current that allows us to always stand ready to respond. When that Current is attended to daily and reinforced by your Decrees, you, Beloved, are in the constant embrace and flow of the protection of Michael, the Defender of your Faith. This is most important for those who have determined to hold the balance for other Sons and Daughters upon the planet who know not of their Christhood or of their own God Presence — for you may come under the impersonal burden of the “not-self” or human creation of the multitudes that resists submission to the Violet Flame.

So it is important that you establish a modicum of our Blue Flame Current each day. As you discover the protective envelope of my Flame, you will understand, Beloved, how to step forth as courageously as the brave soldiers in the field, those who protect your life, your fortunes and yes, your sacred honor. Know well, Beloved, that those who are oft times called upon to give the ultimate sacrifice are instantly attended by my angels. There is not one fallen upon the battlefield, serving the cause of Freedom, who does not immediately see my face or have the attendant Angels of my bands take them to the octaves where their lifestreams are best served.

This, Beloved, is our Sacrifice and our Service to each one who is upon the Earth. True, they do not know my name, and oft times do not recognize my Flame, and may even rebuke and try to push aside our assistance. But we pursue. We continue on, for we understand that those still in ignorance of Cosmic Law would act in accordance with the Divine Plan of their lifestream if given firsthand knowledge and opportunity.

Your Life Is Precious

Life is so very precious. Each breath that is taken must be protected. Each Heart Flame must be given the opportunity to expand, to move into those arenas of life consistent with striving toward the Ascension and moving into the Octaves of Light at the close of this lifetime. Every breath, every beat of the heart, every action and every thought must be protected, guided and guarded.

You, Beloved, cannot take for granted your own opportunity or any latitude of time remaining to accomplish all necessary tasks. Mark well the days, for they are numbered by your own God Presence for the great opportunity to expand the Flame of Christ upon the Altar of your Heart. Do flourish in the Virtues of the Christ and spread the Compassion of your Heart, not only through the Instruction of that which you know intimately as the Teachings of the Ascended Masters, but that which you know as the true Love of God — the giving of your Heart and entrusting into safekeeping that which flows through you into the Heart of another.

Oh, yes, Beloved, it requires that you make yourself vulnerable to all about you, for in that very sense of vulnerability is the greatest surge of God that can then flow through you and nourish and protect you as you are in that vulnerable state of giving. This is why you, the Torch Bearers of The Temple, as Sons and Daughters of God, have gathered together, have elected to come apart and be a separate and chosen people, to know the Teachings of the Ascended Masters — not to separate yourself out from mankind, but to be able to move among mankind in Christ Attunement — to teach, to instruct, to guide, to hold the balance, to transmute the negativity upon the land so that there can be greater opportunity for the younger generations of the children of God who come forth.

Yes, Beloved, there will come the time when those pure, newborn lifestreams will require an even greater surge of protection by your calls than you are amassing today. This is why there must be greater numbers of Ascended Master students across the land. This is why you, Beloved, must allow for your Chalice to be prepared. As that Chalice is prepared more and more, it will magnetize the Light of God that will flow forth as the pure Teaching, the pure Instruction, and the means to lead all the new, new, new ones — the Christed adolescents awaiting the Annunciation of their Mission.

The Shepherd Templars

The Shepherd Templars come under my guidance. The time is nigh that we have further instruction for the Shepherd Templars, for more students are now in the midst of being prepared for that office so that greater numbers can go forth across the land. I will direct the Messengers concerning those who are ready to be anointed. This will come forth in the next cycle so that you will understand what is meant by true leadership on behalf of those who desire to follow these Teachings and find fulfillment of the Christ within their Heart.

Blessed Ones, it is important to understand that even though you are not selected to be in an Office of the Hyksos lineage, you are expected to put on the mantle of Christhood in every walk of life, which you are called upon by your own God Presence to pursue. For then and only then can you fulfill the destiny and the Divine Plan of your lifestream to its fullest and enter into the Victory of the Ascension.

You Are to Become the Many Christed Ones

It is no accident that the Mosaic Dispensation came forth to lay the foundation of the inviolate principles of Cosmic Law, preparing the way for the consciousness to be able to receive the Christ. And it is no accident that the Christ came forth through the Piscean Dispensation bringing all of the Teaching and Instruction so you would understand what is meant by the Christ, the only begotten of the Presence.

Now, Beloved, it is time for you to understand that you are to become that Christ. It is no longer the Single-Eyed Vision of the one Son of God but of the many Sons and Daughters who are required to envelop the land in the Love, the Action, the Illumination of the Christ, and to lead all others into that same Unity.

I AM adjoined this day to the Angel Micah, who stands with me to see that you might have the understanding of the Unity that must come forth.

Blessed Hearts, all of heaven, all of the Ascended Octaves of Light stand with me to protect you. Allow for that protection to go forth and to unfurl the Banner of Archangel Michael so that all will have the constant reminder that the fullness of your Faith is required at every turn — for you to fulfill the Divine Destiny of your own Mighty I AM!

I AM Archangel Michael,
Defender of the Faith and Defender of your Christhood!

I thank you!
