The New Day Has Begun!

In the fullness of your love for God, I, Hilarion, come to address you and to impart a reminder of all of those things which you have once before held so dear to your heart. For yes, there has always been that time when each lifestream received the directive of the Mind of God streaming forth and announcing to them to awaken! Awaken to the reality of who you are! No longer give sway to the outer conditions of life! Take God Command in the fullness of the Purity that streams forth from the Mighty I AM!

Yes, you have been there before. Perhaps it was but a fleeting moment. Perhaps it was an entire lifetime. And so, charged with Light, you were given the directive by your own God Presence to enter the fray once more. To stand for the fullness of the Light of God! To proclaim the Truth throughout the land! And to give of your energies into the fullness of the unification of the Sons and Daughters of God who would stand together in the same Vibration that streams forth as the core of Purity, of Truth, of the Divine Will of God.

Many have answered that call, and they have stood as long as the preparedness of their outer vehicles would allow. But because there was ignorance of the disciplines needed for their training, those vehicles would oftentimes wane at the most important hour when their lifestream was needed to anchor the Light and to be the Will of God in action in the Earth.

So we, the Ascended Masters, have learned to temper the Fire for those who are perhaps not aware as yet, who have not determined within their lifestream whether or not they truly believe, who have ignored the signs along the way that hold within them that certain Keynote that would remind the slumbering disciples of their True Destiny. And yet, come though we do, tempering the Fire, the charge of Light, the Message, if you will, there are still those who fall by the wayside.

So we must ask ourselves within the Cosmic Councils, "What is the right course to take for the Earth? Should we forever merely baby, coddle, and wrap you in a swaddling garment, a protective envelope, and keep you in that naiveté of your natal birth? When does there come the time when Sons and Daughters of God awaken to a consciousness able to receive the unmitigated charge of our Light, the true Illumination of Cosmic Law, that absolute Truth that stands for all time?" Do you, even now, understand that regardless of where you go, whatever you put your attention upon, whatever is the creative action that you engage, the same, impersonal Cosmic Law will always be at work?

What is it that the Sons and Daughters of God need? We have come to our conclusions, but the final determination always remains subject to the conscious awareness of the individual lifestream. What is it that you need? What is it that will spur you into action? What will ignite the Fires of your Heart to leap in joy to engage with your own God Presence? What is it that will enable you to fulfill your Fiery Destiny and to ignore along the way all the pitfalls of human creation that would otherwise tear you down and draw you into the deep abyss of nothingness?

I know what we have determined. And I know what the recipe is. But my conviction will be of no avail if you are not able to hear it, to perceive it, to engender in your own life a way of life that holds to the divine standard and leads you into the full awareness of your destiny, preparing you for the fulfillment of the ultimate Victory. So that on the final day of your accomplishment, your Ascension will stand as the testimony and the example of all that you have worked for. Every day of your life is a day of preparing for that one Victory that is the culmination of the many victories leading to it.

Perhaps you have already guessed. Those who are wise, those who have held to their disciplines and have held in the fullness of their outer consciousness the design and the pattern with which each one should fashion their life — these are the earnest disciples who possess the greatest opportunity of achieving their Victory! When you stand in the Fullness of God, holding your attention upon THE ONE, you have won every battle. You have achieved every Victory. You have garnered the Wisdom, the Attainment, and the Mastery!

But it is not on one singular occasion alone that you must hold your attention upon THE ONE, the Mighty I AM Presence that is the Allness of God and the Individualization of who you are. But, it is every moment of every day. For as the cycles unfold in your life, so arise ever new requirements that your God Presence can lead you through, threading your life through all of the maya and illusion that may be abounding and, nonetheless, holding you firm in the palm of the Hand of the Presence of God.

Every day, every moment is a new challenge, a new opportunity for you to prove the Law, Cosmic Law — for you to establish within your own life the miracles that unfold naturally, as the Emerald Ray streams through you in those creative endeavors of thought, word, and action that allow for the expression of your Christhood to be where you are in this world, to feed into life, to nourish life, and to weave out of your very life expression the fullness of the Garment of your Christhood so that at the close of your lifetime in the physical octave, as you lay that Garment of achievement upon the Altar of the Most High, it may be judged worthy.

And in that day of judgment, you will know if you have been in the right place at the right time, if you have applied the right pressure of Light, if you have said the right words, if you have allowed for the right thoughts within your mind, if you have held first and foremost the Mighty I AM Presence as Lord of your house, the house of the planes of consciousness in which you abide. The Heart Flame knows no other residence. It knows only these vehicles of consciousness drawn together and sustained by your own God Presence so that you might have vehicles of expression to prove the Law, to exact the Creative Powers of God, to throw open the doorway into the Realms of Perfection that to some in the physical octave seem to be so far removed that they cannot even fathom such Perfection is possible. But understand, blessed ones, it is possible! For it is already present right within your own higher vehicles of consciousness!

Your own Holy Christ Presence abides within the Realms of Perfection and, even so, awaits those times when you are in Harmony, holding to the pure thoughts, the pure intent of life, the right vibration so that that Holy Christ Presence may unfurl the banners of the Threefold Flame through your own vehicles of consciousness as the Will of God, as Illumination of God, as the Love of God, as the White Light of Purity and the Mother Light, establishing within you the proving ground of your Victory!

You are intended to be God Victorious. Think not upon your human creation that yet exists, even as you are in physical octaves. Rather think upon the Fullness of your Mighty I AM Presence, of that Electronic Body that establishes the flow of Light and the Patterns of God Identity that you will receive daily. Know that you are able to absorb the fullness of that Light into the fabric of your life if you will but put the Presence of God first.

What a travesty that there are still those Sons and Daughters of God so accustomed to their own human creation that they do not believe that they or anyone can live a full life, enjoying all of the pure fruits of the labor of these physical octaves that have been hard won by the Cosmic Councils over the millennium, prepared for your enjoyment and your Victory. They think only that somehow life in the Realms of God is too sterile and, therefore, they do not aspire to absorb its Beauty and exhilarating Vibrations.

But, indeed, this is the true nature of the Divine Realms where the Presence of God is the All-in-All of all life that you have ever enjoyed, have ever desired, have ever wished for! Thanks to that thin layer of pure memory buried deep in the soul, you still remember those exalted states when you have known the Fullness of God, when you have stood in the Presence of God. Thanks to that memory, which somehow every Son and Daughter of God has not lost track of, all are therefore striving to return once more, misguided though the outer vehicles may be, testing the waters of the human creation and delving into all manner of pursuits that do not prepare them.

It is when, and only when, the outer vehicles determine that they are nothing save the Presence of God moving through them. They want for nothing save the Desire of God. They are not able to cognize thought save it be the Mind of God preparing the way for the next step, the next thought, the next word. Then, and only then, can the disciple desiring the Lord of the house to be home within realize he, the Lord has arrived!

You are the Son and the Daughter of God. With that Office comes a mantle of Divine Right — the right to call upon the Lord, the right to demand that the Fullness of all that is present within the Mighty I AM Presence move through you, establish a way of life for you, breathe upon your life the Breath that is the Fire Breath of God that eliminates all unreality and allows for the Truth of who you are to be present where you are.

But that action only occurs when these outer vehicles are resigned, disciplined, and submissive to the Will of God. When the Light and the Body Consciousness of the Mighty I AM Presence feeds into the outer vehicles that the Sons and Daughters of God wear, they are receiving the nourishment of God, allowing their vehicles to be filled to overflowing. No longer are they squandering the Light, no longer misusing that precious Body Consciousness, but allowing it to build up in the outer vehicles and, yes, start to vibrate more and more as does their own God Presence, elevating that Vibration where each one resides, allowing that Vibration to ripple out across the Earth, affecting the whole of the consciousness of the Sons and Daughters of God.

For each one in their own right has the opportunity to receive the Blessing of the God Momentum that every other Son and Daughter of God has accomplished. This is why you can never say for one moment that the Path to the Ascension is a selfish endeavor. For it is the most benevolent endeavor for the entirety of the Earth, for all feed upon the glorious Victory of each one. So you, the Son, the Daughter of the Most High, have a responsibility to your brothers and sisters of Light — that responsibility that you can only fulfill if you walk in the Presence of God.

I trust that you will adhere to my instruction and the pressure of my Consciousness. That you will rehearse it until your mind, your emotions, your physical body begin to resonate with the Truth of this Cosmic Law that I have imparted to you. Then you will know what it means to stand shoulder to shoulder with those kindred spirits who are your true brothers and sisters, regardless of where they come from, what their education may be, what the cultures of their land may be. You will recognize them by the Vibration of their Heart. And thus, you will know the Allness of God is at work, and you will have fulfilled your part of the Divine Outpouring that the Presence of God has desired for the Earth.

Rejoice! in the new day when you are the Fullness of the Presence of God where you are. That new day has begun. I thank you.
