Maitreya's School is Open!

As the Cosmic Christ and Planetary Buddha, I, Lord Maitreya, am here to announce to you that the Momentum of Cosmic Law seeded in and entrusted throughout the ages to the various world religions has reached the point when there must be a renewed thrust of Divine Purpose upon the screen of life upon the Earth so that the Many Sons and Many Daughters of God may begin to realize the Truth of their own God Identity!

As most of the sincere students of longstanding already know, it is my Office to send forth each thrust of transcendent Divine Wisdom to be realized within the many true religions of the world. I refer now to those that were originally instituted by God and where the Light burned upon the Altar of the Heart of those Christed individuals who stepped forth and proclaimed God's Presence in the best form and fashion that could be realized given the limitations of the historical era in which they lived.

But you now live in a time when many know the word karma. Many know of reincarnation. Many have even heard of the name Saint Germain, of the Violet Flame, though they are relatively few compared to the masses. And still, those outside the boundaries of Ascended Master Teaching who may have heard of the Name I AM, have yet to realize what really is meant by the Name I AM, how it relates to their present-day life, or of the wealth of knowledge contained in the I AM Presence as the Truth of their Identity and the Source of all that they require, and ultimately are to be in this world of form.

So when you consider the brothers and sisters of Light of other religions who know not the name Saint Germain, El Morya, know not the great Service of Mother Mary, these precious lifestreams, blessed ones, await your nudge, your example, your influence in the mental, emotional, and physical worlds, as you draw forth the Light of God, as you establish more of that divinely intended mission which each one of you is to accomplish, and as you make room in your life for the Christ Light to blaze forth!

This Vision, blessed ones, is your calling. You may not think that you elected to engage with us in establishing the greater momentum of a new world religion, but indeed you did. Why do you suppose your Heart Flame has resounded to the Vibration of the Ascended Masters, to their Words and Instruction, to the Teaching of Cosmic Law they have lowered into these planes of consciousness? Why is it that you have responded to these Anointed Representatives when they have spoken the Word of God? It is because, blessed ones, your own Mighty I AM Presence has prepared you, has so charged your own Identity of Godliness within the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart, and you have allowed that Flame to begin to work in your outer vehicles so that you would recognize the Voice of God, the Flame of God, the very Vibration of the Truth of God.

What is it that will enable mankind to awaken to the Truth that resides upon their Heart? First and foremost, you have understood the great importance of the Violet Flame, of why one must invoke the Violet Flame to transmute their past karmic records, so that they may become receptive to hear and act upon the still small Voice of God, the Will of God, the Desire of God that burns upon the Altar of their Heart. If you are clouded with all manner of your own returning karma, substances of unreality and confusion, densities of the human consciousness surrounding you in all forms, then how can you relate to the Purity and the Perfection that is the Flame of God, the Truth of your own God Identity?

And this, blessed ones, is what all require in whatever walk of life, whatever so-called station in life, relationship, or profession — it matters not. The Violet Flame is a major key to the transmuting of entrenched ideas, perceptions of worn-out dogmas and doctrines, distorted by the human consciousness over time, having lost the very charge of their initial inception in the Truth of Cosmic Law. Cosmic Law that at the very least, has become so silted over with human consciousness, greed, power — with all manner of human identity — that the very Presence of God has gone begging and flown away. And so the masses have drifted away from the very idea that God is present, that God exists, that God can be prayed to and will respond, that God is where they are. If they only strike the scales from their eyes, open their eyes and hearing, open their Hearts and their minds to the very Vibration that is the Truth of Cosmic Law, they will know God.

I, Maitreya, need not stand here this day and tell you all that is going on in the world that does not meet the standard of a Golden Age. You already know. What is important for you to hear from the Cosmic Christ this day is that you are the hope of the world! You who have the Fire upon the Altar of your Heart and know the I AM THAT I AM, you who have realized the Presence of God in your own life and can set the example in all of your affairs, wherever you may be!

You are those who can stand in the Light of God and hold to the Harmony, the Peace, deep as the oceans, within your emotional body, that allows for the very Power of your own God Presence to stand within you, to energize all that is a part of the Divine Plan and the Will of your God Presence through your outer vehicles. Do not forget that what you wear as the mind, emotions, and physical body, and all of the subplanes of those bodies, as well as the memory body, are vehicles destined to be charged and motivated in order to create in the world of form, in time and space, more of the Presence of God, multiplying at every turn the good works that you are to accomplish.

There are enough Ascended Master students of Light, who are the Torch Bearers of The Temple, to accomplish the work that is needed in this hour! But it requires the rallying of each one to put their Heart Flame into their Decrees, into their Service, into their life work, and to wear the Garment of their Holy Christ Presence. Put it on daily and work through your Destiny, all the while engaging in the world service that you are able to render and to accomplish!

All this, blessed ones, will lay the steppingstones for the Golden Age. In the process, yes, the membership may expand. There will be those who will scrutinize, looking in, peering to see what it is that you are all about. What are these Teachings that you profess are so great? Some will come with their own opposition that they throw at you because they fear that they may have to change. But you are grounded sufficiently in the Light of God and your own inner experience with the Mighty I AM Presence to know the Truth of who you are and the mettle of which you are made! And so you are able to stand in the midst of all turmoil.

Blessed hearts, the Presence of God is worth every inconvenience these outer vehicles may be required to go through to be God Victorious — fulfilling the Divine Plan of your lifestream and the Will of your God Presence, exercising Cosmic Law as the Truth of God Identity in all of your affairs and in every move you make.

Throughout the previous two-thousand-year cycle, the thrust within the Christian community has been to hold their attention upon one Son of God, Jesus by name — a Christ, a God truly! But sadly over the ages, that movement shifted all of its attention away from the Presence of God in each one, the very example set by Jesus which he had come to establish and to mark so carefully with his own I AM Affirmations for each one to follow.

So, you can see, blessed ones, how over time human creation bereft of the Violet Flame will erode the very best efforts of the Brotherhood of Light! And then you have those from the enclaves of the worst segments of humanity that determine that all that is of God and Christ must be eradicated. And thus factions continue to fight, one with the other. Holy wars, so-called, of ages past have left battlefields strewn with the dead, and yes, blessed hearts, with negative karma that should never have been generated!

Yes, there are those cycles when you must stand with your very life to protect life, God, country! But is it not the time to move beyond such cycles and move into the Golden Age? Two thousand years from now, will the Earth still be battling away as they did in the Dark Ages? Or will there have been the leavening of enclaves of Golden Age communities far and wide across the Earth that emit a greater Light, a greater Momentum, and a greater Divine Purpose, to establish the destined Golden Age for the Earth? You look to one another and you say, “But we are few in number. How can we make a difference?” One Son of God made a difference — Jesus by name!

Many of you have been embodied in certain positions in and around the past two-thousand-year cycle, fostering and supporting the Truth at the core of Christianity, to bring it to the fore. Perhaps some of you sowed seeds of unreality. Later on discovering the error of your ways in the Retreats of the Ascended Masters between incarnations, you have come back to right the wrongs you had a hand in. I do not say that is the case. But that is a possibility for anyone. So you must realize there is a Responsibility for all God’s children that all undertake for the very well-being, health, and acceleration toward the Golden Age of the Earth and all thereon.

As the Cosmic Christ, it is my Office to remind you when you are on track and when you must accelerate the very momentums that you have barely started, but are still required. For the balance to be held for the Earth requires many hearts invoking the Light of God. And it will eventually take more than just your Violet Flame Vigils! Once the “new, new, new ones,” as El Morya would say, are identified and have embraced the Violet Flame initiated by Saint Germain, there will come the time when they must begin to understand Cosmic Law, their responsibility to that Law, understand the five planes of the so-called Secret Rays that you have come to know contain the Pranic Breaths and Elemental Forces of Nature and that comprise the very vehicles that you wear.

They must know and understand the Virtues of the Christ and moreover, the God Qualities of their own Mighty I AM Presence that are to stream forth into these outer vehicles as they are practicing the Virtues of the Christ. That may seem confounding to someone steeped in the outer world who does not know that there is more to life than flesh and bone, that a person's feelings are tangible realities that can be rife with unreality and negativity or can be pure, harmonious, charged with the full Power of God.

The mind can be a cesspool of negativity, sowing its seeds into the emotional and the physical bodies, breaking down the very vehicles that were so carefully prepared by the Mighty I AM Presence. And needless to say, the returning karma lodged within the memory body, if not transmuted by the Violet Flame and the Calls to the Mighty I AM Presence and the Lords of Karma, then cascades in a sad recital of unreality which continues to build and be builded upon by the misqualification of the daily allotment of Light that is intended for you to break out of that encrustation of the human consciousness and put on the divine vehicle of the Holy Christ Presence.

I do realize that I AM rehearsing this process to many who already know these fundamental teachings. But this message, blessed ones, is what many more need to receive! And they will look to you, to the words that you say, and weigh your actions — who you are, what the words that you have spoken stand for in your own life! What is your vibration? Are you truly standing in the Harmony that you advocate for them and their emotional body? Are you holding fast to the Purity of all things in your life, whether it be entertainment, foods that you ingest, thoughts that you engage in, energy that you send forth?

So you see, blessed ones, the living example you set is the greatest power of the Ascended Master Teachings. One that will initiate new cycles of momentum and forward progress that are required. We will always do our part to support you, to send forth the Momentum of our own Attainment, so that you might have the wind in your sail, and the Strength of our commitment to the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart, your Mighty I AM Presence, and your Divine Plan to carry you through to the Victory!

I, Maitreya, will have much more to say throughout the coming cycle as it relates to the previous years of indoctrination in Christian dogma, as well as what was originally intended by the Brotherhood of Light, so that you will understand not only where there have been departures, but also where there have been strengths, and where you can come together on common ground to begin to introduce the Violet Flame, the Mighty I AM Presence, reincarnation.

This is most valuable, blessed ones. For even those who are the most sincere Christians across the world need your help, and need our assistance. They need the Flame of God burning within their churches; for in most, that Consecrated Flame upon the Altar has ceased to exist! That is why when someone new, who is open to the Teachings, comes and feels this Vibration, they know that it far transcends what they receive in their churches, their synagogues, their temples. For this is the very Presence of God burning brightly on the Altar here at The Temple of The Presence.

It is the Presence of God burning brightly upon the Altar of the Temple of your own Presence! And you, blessed hearts, are the expansion of that Flame! Your Love for God is a Love that will pierce through any darkness, any unreality. For as you are grounded in the fundamental Teachings of the Ascended Masters on Cosmic Law and have galvanized your own vehicles of consciousness with enough Light to transmute your own returning karma, to give you clarity of mind, Peace and Harmony within your world, you can — and will — stand as a Pillar of Fire! And then when you speak and call forth the Holy Angels, you know they are right there assisting you. You have the commitment of the Brotherhood of Light to respond at every turn when you are in that Presence of God!

Hold fast! Periodically, throughout history and your present lifetime, there are cycles when you are required to hold fast with every erg of energy that you can muster. It will take all that you know to hold onto the Core of Being that is your Mighty I AM Presence, to pass through unscathed, and to be able to live to tell the story another day of how the Mighty I AM Presence held you in a state of Peace and Harmony, all the while, the torrent waves and oceans were churning all about you. For you knew that the Hand of God was at work in your life. That takes great Faith and Trust, but even still greater, Love in God and the very Wisdom of knowing the Presence of God within you!

Hold fast! You are entering into new cycles. I come to prepare all. And this, the coming cycle, will be the Schoolroom of Maitreya, preparing you so that you will not be caught unaware, absent any knowledge, any teaching, or any internalization you may need so that you might be equipped to end this incarnation in God Victory! I could not be more supportive or more entreating of your attention than I AM this day!

Let the word go forth! Maitreya's School is open! And we begin forging new ground, new Cosmic Law, as that firm foundation which you can build upon throughout the coming years and cycles to follow.

I, Maitreya, seal you in the Ruby Fire of my Heart so that you will always be protected by the Love of God, when you allow that Love to enter into your Heart and you return it to the Mighty I AM Presence, your own God Identity!

I thank you.

Lord Maitreya
