

Dear hearts, we take up the study of Fire. You hear this term used much in our instruction. You have heard of the Fires of the Holy Spirit, the Fires of the Heart, the Kundalini Fires, and the Flame of the Ascension. Have you stopped to imagine how much of your world is infused with Fire? Verily the firing of the electrons of Light in your body keep you moving forward toward the magnet of the Great Central Sun, your cosmic home of Light. This is Sacred Fire that will consume all out of alignment with the vibration of the God quality. As the intense action of Fire moves through the records of past and present embodiments, there is an opportunity for greater and greater purification. When there is purification, there is wholeness. When there is wholeness there is the Christ Consciousness. And in the Light of the Christ Consciousness you abide in the full Flame of your own I AM Presence.

There are many guideposts leading you to this ultimate opportunity. First and foremost you must realize you already possess three Flames — three God Flames acting as one and abiding upon your Heart — God Illumination, God Will, and God Love. They are the living, tangible Presence of the Great God Flame, nurtured by your own Holy Christ Self and I AM Presence, breathed on by the breath of the Holy Spirit and sustaining that Fire so you might have all you require lifetime after lifetime. This Threefold Flame is the Light that illumines your pathway home. Oh yes, there are artificial lights which confuse and distract, but this Light, the Light of your own Heart Flame, can always be trusted.

I speak now of the Light of the chakras and of the Kundalini Fires that come forth, rising up when you least expect the awakening. Beloved ones, this is a Fire not to be toyed with. Regard its arrival seriously. In your world you have learned to treat electricity in its many outward forms with great respect. You know you could not put your bare finger in the socket of an electric fixture without a shock. Likewise I trust that as the Fires of the Kundalini are unlocked, you will guard well your attunement, your Harmony, and your connection with your Holy Christ Self. Ofttimes the awakening of this Fire is painful and causes great discomfort as it forges its way to new horizons. But if you will endure and allow the pathways to be opened, you will find waiting in the Secret Chamber of your Heart this pure Mother Light, ready to move into action and to become the many hands and feet of your lifestream.

Fire can be intimidating, and many who have for the first time seen the inner Fires with their third eye vision have pulled back. It takes Courage beloved ones, to step into that intensity of living Flame. Because you know that once you step into that Flame, the not-self of human creation, of all you think you but are not, will be dissolved and you will stand as the newborn babe before your very own God Presence, unclothed save for your own externalized Light. Many who count themselves Our students consider they are not yet ready to take that step. For fear of loss they have chosen to stay in their former state. Such a waste of Opportunity beloved ones! Such tragic error! For there is no loss upon entering into the fullness of the Flame of God. The fullness of Love, of Light, of Compassion, of all the God qualities you could ever desire are waiting for that moment when you courageously enter into the fullness of the Flame.

Yes, the Fire may sing. Yes it may be uncomfortable. Yes the demons and discarnates will try to disturb your world to keep you from entering into the fullness of the Flame. For they know that once you have become the God Being of your own reality — that Mighty IAM Presence, they no longer stand a chance of siphoning part of the daily allotment of your lifestream's Light. For instead you will be protected, clad in the armor of Flame. So what if all manner of chaos breaks lose just as you would step into that Flame. Recognize it for what it is beloved ones. With single-mindedness of purpose step forward into the blazing Light of the Christ.

Those Saints of old who are now Ascended have gone before you and have left the record of their own overcoming, of the transitory pain and suffering of letting go of the unrealities of the human self in exchange for this Supernal Fire of Freedom. There is no greater joy than the bliss of standing in the Fires of the Light of God and feeling the dross and the layers, the old karmic records falling off, never to appear again on the screen of Life, for they are no more! Without question the greatest gift to mankind in this century has been the outer knowledge of the Violet Flame. For with this Flame you may consume all those records, you may consume the daily allotment of karma, so mitigated by your Holy Christ Self.

Beloved ones do you realize what this means? You no longer have to physically outpicture the pain and the anguish and the personal involvement of karmic ties simply for the sake of balancing the karma. All you need do is invoke the Flame and by the Love of your IAM Presence you will be flooded with Violet Fire coursing throughout your world. Greet the day running with the Violet Flame as you receive your morning allotment of returning karma. Then after the Fire has burned through and transmuted all of the records, you will feel all sense of weight and burden lifted from your shoulders and be able to walk through your day with a lightness and an ability to breathe deeply.

Do you think beloved ones, that we Ascended Masters were impervious to the karma and weight of the physical plane when we walked among you? We were not! We know every step of the path you walk. We know what to expect. We know that as you turn the next corner you will have new challenges to meet. Our desire is the God desire to help you meet those challenges. As you take the next step, visualize that step moving forward and creating a veritable pathway of Flame beneath your feet, and everywhere you walk you will leave blazing footprints for others to follow. Your example of overcoming will be as a talisman for the Lightbearers around you and those coming after. Recognize that you, yes you beloved ones, are anchoring a Fire in the earth that will raise the consciousness of the race and allow for the Ascension of many to come.

INVOKE THE FLAME! Even if you cannot see the Flames with your third eye vision, you certainly can feel the warmth and intensity of their radiation. Rest assured beloved ones, the Fire will become quite tangible as you progress in its use! There is nothing hypothetical about the Sacred Fire surging through your world. And by your world I don't just mean your physical body. I mean your affairs, your surroundings, your home, your workplace... your car as well as your karma.

You have a magnificent tool beloved ones, that for the most part goes unused. It is the gift of the throat chakra. The Blue Fire that emanates from the throat chakra is the Will of God bringing into outer manifestation the fulfillment of your calls. The forthright use of the Power chakra coupled with Ascended Master Decrees, Fiats and Affirmations will ignite the Fires of your Heart and draw down from the Ascended Master Octaves and Retreats of the Brotherhood the Fires anchored on Our altars. All you need to do is call. INVOKE THE FLAME!

Beloved ones, tend well the Immortal Victorious Threefold Flame ablaze now upon the altar of your Heart. It is entrusted by your Presence into your keeping to protect, expand, and share that Flame when so guided with other souls of Light who are ready to receive the Flame of the Holy Spirit through you. Be not timid to speak of the Fire, for you will find that the more you speak of the Fires of the Will of God surging through your being, the more you will be illumined with the teaching to accompany that Will and the Compassion of the Heart to love life free in the Flame. The more you speak of the Fires of the Heart, the greater your Heart will burn, the closer your Presence will interact with you on a continual basis.

At long last you will be a walking, talking Son of God bearing the message of Freedom and the Light for a planet so hungry, so thirsty that it cries out for fear that one of the Sons or Daughters of God will not look their way. You will look dispassionately upon the world as a child who misbehaves for attention and discipline from the parent. Beloved ones even the darkness and its denizens would rather be consumed by Violet Flame and repolarized back to the Heart of God than to continue on a path of death and destruction. Do you realize what I have just said? They cry aloud not for destruction, beloved ones, but for the liberation that you and you alone can offer.

You are a Son or Daughter of God, capable of wielding Fire! It is your responsibility so to do. The astral plane awaits deliverance. Will you not make the call, and send the Light of God into action? Call forth the millions of angels waiting, ready to move forward. The calls you make, released by the Flame in your Heart, can change a world, and not just this world beloved ones, but other worlds. For you have a greater mission than just this world.

It is time for the Lightbearers to be up and doing. Do not shrink back from committing your life and your self to this cause for fear of loss of your own pseudo identity. Boldly wear the mantle of your own individualized God Presence. That is who you really are. Then move forward with the Legions of Light in the fullness of the God Flame and you will be Victorious!

Be sealed in the Flame of your own God Presence in this hour of My Visitation. Feel the fullness of that Flame, surging through your being as a tangible reality. And then I, the Maha Chohan, will then have the ability to direct my Flame of the Holy Spirit through you at any hour of the day or night.

I AM the Flame of God abiding throughout the body of Man!

I thank You!

The Maha Chohan
