The Thoughtform for the Year 2004

Blessed Children,

May the sound of the tone of your own beating Heart reverberate the Peace and the Love of the Buddha as you enter into the Secret Chamber of your Heart. Experience the silence, the stillness that surrounds you when you allow the world about you to be put aside for a time. Allow the focus of your mind, the discipline of your physical body and your attention to the Flames of the Heart to recognize the current that is ever present but oft times so far away as to not be a conscious part of your day-to-day life.

Tether Your Heart to the Heart of God

Throughout each day, the strains of Light flowing forth from the Heart of your own God Presence attend to those things that are to bring you into a greater awareness of the Abundant Life, a life fulfilled in the accomplishment of many victories. Your thought materializes into action and comes forth as the very creative endeavors of your striving and determination. It manifests the loves of your life — the love of friends, of family, and the unconditional Love that is given to all without expectation of return.

Only a Heart tethered to the Heart of the God of very Gods, a Heart that knows no ending, will always have sufficient Love to give. And such a Heart will always be filled with the fullness of the Love of God. The currents that are established within your Heart allow you to have the understanding of Christ Discrimination. Then you will know the right thing to do, the right step to take, the right thought to allow you to navigate through the ethers.

This Wisdom that you have gained, sometimes through trial and error, but now with the touch of the Flame of Illumination from the Heart, comes from a Source you recognize, but have not been closely aligned with for a very long time. This is the Illumination of the Wisdom Flame of your own Holy Christ Self, which allows you to have access to the Mind of God, to understand why, how, where, or if it is to be. Yes, Beloved, all these questions become known to the Heart that is tethered to the Flame of Wisdom.

The Travesty of an Undisciplined Life

But the untethered mind that is always flitting about, hither and yon, never settling upon a moment of contemplation, cannot know the Flame of Wisdom, for the emotions are never stilled, are always filled with anxieties, agitation, or movement. The physical body is never rested, and often malnourished and filled with disease. These vehicles, Beloved, when untrained and unprepared, set up the barriers and the veils of human consciousness that keep you from knowing the true Flame of the Heart. These barriers and veils are such a travesty when you are ever so close to the Source of your own true divinity; when you possess vehicles of consciousness that enable the Hand of God to move through the affairs of your life. The Comfort Flame can be released instantaneously at the first appearance of any ill wind reverberating in your life. Constant rapport with the Mind of your Holy Christ Self enables you to have the keen awareness at a moment's notice when you are in harm's way or when the negativity is such that you should shift your own physical presence to another location.

There have been those who thought to themselves that meditation upon the Light of God takes too much time. "I am too busy. I cannot afford to give that amount of time to a spiritual life." Oh, how short-sighted indeed is the one who cannot see the great accomplishments that can come forth when they make room for God, when they expand the Light of the Heart and allow that Light to fill their life, becoming the fullness of God Life, and allowing for the enriching of every aspect of the Initiatic Path toward enlightenment and toward Nirvana.

Meet Every Challenge Victoriously

I, Gautama, know well the temptations that are presented to each one in due course toward their Victory. Welcome these trials. Do not fear them. Run to greet the new day and all the manifold expressions of life that are to be presented to you so that you might, with the swiftness and keenness of the Mind of God, meet the challenges victoriously. It is that acceleration of Joy into the new day that allows for the expansion of the Heart Flame to carry you into the Victory. Those who are always looking over their shoulders, dragging their feet and procrastinating entrée into life are already defeated, and it will be a time and half a time longer until they victoriously enter the Kingdom of their own God Presence. I trust that you will heed my reminder, understanding that it is for you, not me, for I AM already Ascended.

I hold fast to the magnet of the Threefold Flame of your Heart so that I might keep the watch with you in Devotion to your Heart Flame, for it is within the Heart that the Victory is won. Should you elect to turn away from your own Heart, forsaking Devotion to the Flame of God and putting your attention only upon those things of the world, know that I, Gautama, will still remain in contemplation upon the Flame of your Heart. I will continue to kneel in Devotion to your God Flame. And when you have wearied of the maya and illusion of the world, that Flame will still be burning, for I will see that it remains ignited.

Do not tarry in the vibration of the outer world too long, Beloved, for you never know how long opportunity and dispensations will afford your individual lifestream entrée into the glorious initiations of the Heart.

The Thoughtform for the Year 2004

I pause, for the Silent Watcher has entered the forcefield, and has placed within my consciousness the Thoughtform for this coming year. How magnificent and how glorious to receive this pristine Perfection born of the Mind of God, to be received by those who have the attainment to hold fast to this focus, to nourish it by the Flame of their Heart, and to allow this Thoughtform to become a Reality within their being. I have received many Thoughtforms throughout my tenure as the Lord of the World, but none that I can say is more dear than this, which I have now received for this coming year. For Oh, my dear Sons and Daughters, should you internalize even a portion of this emanation sent forth from the Heart of God, you will have received much blessing and the seed consciousness for the fulfillment of your individual Victory.

The Thoughtform for this year is that of a glorious Star shining forth in the firmament, sending the Light Rays of all of the glorious Rays of God Consciousness into the nighttime sky, scintillating and allowing for the fullness of the Light to bring Illumination to all parts of life. As the darkness is dispelled, you see the Heart of a little child awoken with Joy. You see the elderly receive a new burst of Strength to continue striving. You see the young family arm-in-arm, connected with the true bond of the Holy Family, engaged in the joyful expressions of life. You see the young man starting out on the road of life, moving singularly toward the Golden Pathway of Illumination. You see the young girl, ever so beautiful and holy in her expressions of Purity, creating an exquisite work of art expressly for all to see and better understand the Heart of God.

All through this Thoughtform are varied expressions of life receiving the glorious Light of God — those joyously toiling in the fields, others going about their day in Harmony, and some sleeping with a smile upon their lips and a Peace upon their brow — and you are certain they must be in attendance to the Flame of God at inner levels while resting their body.

All Are Connected through the Light

Within this Thoughtform is the understanding that all are connected by the Light Rays of the glorious Star in the firmament. This Star represents the Great Central Sun. The unity of Consciousness known as the Entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood holds fast to this Thoughtform, keeping the watch while the Sons and Daughters of God on the Earth expand their Heart Flames within its Light; are nurtured by this Light; and receive the fullness of the understanding of Life because the Threefold Flame has been reawakened within them; has been allowed to take dominion as the Christ Consciousness. Truly, all is right within their worlds.

This Thoughtform has forever been the dream of the Entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood. It is the Hope of those who hold dear the Heart of God. It is the desire of the Christ Consciousness of enlightened lifestreams who know the Path exists. It has become so ever personal for those who have become that Christ and who will not be stilled until that Christ Consciousness is expressed within the Heart of all who yet remain on the Earth.

Drink In the Light

A most glorious Light that streams forth from this focus of the Great Central Sun in the form of this glorious Star is the Source that you, Beloved, may look to so that your own God Presence may raise the gaze of its eyes into the outpouring of this Light. Drink in this Light. Allow this Light to expand to every cell of your being. Know well that, as you receive this Light, you must allow those things not born of a like vibration to go into the Flame and to be no more. Then you will be filled with such glorious Illumination, such Love, and such an impetus of the Will of God that you will not miss those things that cannot ever, in all eternity, rise to the level of Perfection of the Christ.

God's blessings to you all,

Gautama
