The New Day – Beginning Now!

A new Earth this day I proclaim. For I the Christ, the Son of God, born of Mary and Joseph, ascended into the Heart of my God Presence, now hold the Office of World Teacher. I stand before you — Sons and Daughters of God, Brothers and Sisters alike — and I proclaim this day: THE EARTH SHALL HAVE ITS GOLDEN AGE! THERE WILL BE THE NEW DAY, BEGINNING NOW! THE LIGHT OF GOD HAS DECREED IT SO THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE COSMOS! The Entire Spirit of the Great White Brotherhood stands ready to assist you to bring it forth. The Peace of the land will be maintained by Hearts filled with Love and Gratitude for God, and for the opportunity to incarnate into the Earth.

Invoking and Anchoring the Light

There will be those Ascensions come forth that stand as a sign for all time to follow. Yes, Beloved, you, the lightbearers of the Earth, you who hold your torches high, know well what it means to invoke the Light of God. The slightest tinge and you feel it. It reverberates through your physical body. You are now called upon to receive more Light, to have your Chalices prepared so that as this Light comes forth it may be anchored in the Earth, not merely shining for a day and moving on, or passing through the Earth without the anchor point of a conscious awareness ready to enact the Office of Christhood.

The Earth has been dry for a very long time, desirous of the flow of the Waters of Life. You, Beloved, are the one to tap the source. You are to bring it forth and allow for the Light, Life and Love of God to stream through the Earth. It requires attention. It requires supreme confidence. And it requires a virtuous life.

Leading a Virtuous Life

What is meant by leading a virtuous life? Upholding the right use of the Law. You have known, in this and many previous embodiments, the Ten Commandments as given to Moses. All persuasions of religious study have provided you with certain attributes to follow and adhere to in order to maintain a pure and chaste life. But have you considered in this life that the decisions you make, the choices you determine to follow, and the actions you perform must carry the Purity of the Light of God?

Flowing through your chakras are the Electrons of Light that come forth from your own God Presence. These Electrons are fashioned, Beloved, according to your co-creation. The creation you send forth into Life not only peoples the Earth with your progeny, but also brings about what is beautiful, helpful, healing — the results of the mastery of your lifestream. When this mastery goes awry, there is no longer any need or opportunity for extending a given incarnation. Life is prolonged only when there is the right use of that Life.

Many times you find yourself involved in circumstances beyond what you consider to be under your control. But there is no circumstance in the Earth you cannot change or right. For you have within your Heart the open door to the Christ, your own Christhood. This Christhood, Beloved, affords you the privilege, the opportunity, to stand in the Light of your own God Presence and proclaim change when it must occur. It also gives you the opportunity to know what is the right change to enact. When you do not know, simply call upon your God Presence to exact the Perfection of God to come forth.

Do you see how it works? Going through life does not have to be complicated. You can be as a little child and understand this instruction — holding fast to the Light of your own God Presence, looking first and foremost to the God Presence as your Source of all Life, and then allowing your God Presence to send forth all you should have, all you should accomplish, all you should endeavor.

You are not merely to live on the Earth, tossed about by the winds of an untamed, undisciplined consciousness and by the anxiety of an emotional body out of control. You have the opportunity to take command, to exercise discipline over your thoughts, feelings, actions and, yes, your physical body, to manifest the Chalice to hold the Light required in the Earth.

Raising the Earth

You have not come merely for your own salvation through the Ascension in the Light. You have come to raise the vibration of the entire Earth! Mastery, yes — attainment, yes — but in so doing, you will have exacted the conscious awareness of your own God Presence, changing all about you into the highest vibration which can be brought forth.

As you do this, all of Life responds. You see the purification of the waters of the Earth, and the beautification of the skies as you look through the clear air and breathe in the prana. You see the great and glorious mountain ranges standing tall for all time to show you that the Earth has been and will continue to remain as long as God is in the Universe.

Do you understand what my statement means? There is no time when God would ever be absent this place, for as long as there is one erg of Light where God resides, there is a conscious awareness behind that erg of energy holding fast to the Perfection of the Heart of God in his Allness and allowing God to be present. Each one of you exacts that Presence. Multiply that exacting by those who do not know of their God Presence, and this Earth is already filled with Light and will continue to manifest even greater Light.

The Golden Age

But, as you are most aware, at present, there is not sufficient Light to claim the Golden Age is nigh at hand. It most certainly exists in many individual lives and is exacted in this small community where I stand to speak and address the Earth this day. But to have the Golden Age manifesting on the hillsides throughout the Earth, setting forth communities in the valleys, and shining as the star that it is to become, I promise you that it requires many to hold fast to the Light, to have their Chalice prepared.

The Light of God can be all-consuming to every aspect of negativity, of any human creation. This Light, Beloved, is the Light of your God Presence. You have access to this Light. Draw upon this Light. Invoke it! Become it! For this Light is your Life. You cannot forever put off to another day, saying, "Perhaps when I have finished school, perhaps when I have raised my family, perhaps when I have retired, I will have the time to give my undivided attention to the Path." Absolutely, this would be a wrong decision in each case, for every day is your Path. Every decision requires the exacting of the Mind of God. Every attitude must be imbued with God Good, and every discernment must be made with the razor sharp Wisdom that can only come forth when you have exercised the Will of God, your God Presence, in your life.

Many will find, sadly, that continuing to put off until their golden years facing the Light of God may require they return, not just once, but many embodiments. Oh, Blessed Children of God, while you have youth, vitality, health and the fortitude of the Will of the undaunted within your being, exercise that Will to pursue your Path of Christhood. Prepare your way. Then, when you are in your golden years and have sufficiently invoked and anchored the Light of God, your own God Presence, in your Chalice and form, you may put your full undivided attention upon the Heart of God as you prepare for the reunion with your God Presence in the Ascension.

In the Golden Age, those who reach their golden years are revered for their steadfast determination and adherence to the Path of the Ascension.

Oh, Beloved, many Ascensions are to come. Let yours be one. Let yours be counted among the thousands that will follow shortly thereafter. Let all understand this was not merely the Path of one Son of God, but is the Path of every Son and Daughter of God. There are not merely a chosen few, but every incarnate I AM Presence in the Earth is the Elect.

It is not merely one community, but is to be many communities springing up throughout the land, carrying torches of the Light of God, of the Ascended Masters, and exhibiting before the world the Light of God in every action, thought and word. Proclaiming the true Purity of the Light of God, these communities will set the example for those yet wandering in the wilderness — lost, afraid, separated from the knowledge of their own God Presence — unaware of what is so near at hand.

Your Responsibility

It is up to you, each one, to accomplish the work. Allow this great release of Light, which the Ascended Masters and your own God Presence would have released into the Earth this day. Understand that, for the Light to be in the Earth, one or more lifestreams, incarnating the Word in the physical are required to anchor that Light. We, the Ascended Masters and Cosmic Councils, as well as the Karmic Board, understand that there must be a multiplication of those with a prepared Chalice to receive this Light, for what has come heretofore has not been sufficient to turn the tide of all of the negativity in the land.

Yes, there will be times to come when you will call upon the Lord and you will need that answer immediately. Therefore, hone well the talents and skills of invocation. Make straight the pathway of the Light and allow that Light to flourish in the land. The Light of God is all about you. The Light of God is who you are. Begin to act responsibly by exhibiting that Light throughout all of your affairs.

I look throughout the land and see many Etheric Cities lowering. These Etheric Cities, fourteen in number, are exhibiting a greater release of Light by the Ascended and Cosmic Beings for the benefit of the Earth. Throughout this coming year, you will hear more specifics regarding the anchoring of that Light in the Earth of which I speak.

Hold fast as this blessed community and all of the Earth receive Light, Light, Light from the Etheric Cities over Tucson, from over Glastonbury, and, yes, over Jerusalem as well. Know the Light is coming forth. Be prepared to receive that Light.

I, Jesus, stand before you to proclaim that the EARTH IS LIGHT!
