Elevate Your Consciousness into the Edenic Blueprints in Akasha

When you enter into Akasha, you are bathed with the Perfection of God. But even more than that, you have a greater awareness of your own True Identity. For the Patterns of Purity and Perfection that are the Edenic Blueprint of your Identity rush to fill your consciousness, so that you are many times overwhelmed by such a reality of Purity. As the Chohan of Akasha, I, the Goddess of Light, commend you to the practice of putting your attention upon the Truth of your God Self. For it is then and only then that you begin to outpicture the divine course that your Presence has intended for you. For when you put on the Patterns of the God Qualities that are the natural estate of your God Presence, you are no longer tempted to wallow in lesser states of consciousness or become embroiled in patterns of negativity, regardless of how seemingly familiar the old habits of your former ways may be. Nonetheless, you have made the election to live in the Divine Estate of the Patterns that are sown within your vehicles of consciousness by the Hand of God. You will surely know the difference and the co-measurement, because the Flame upon the Altar of your Heart has long been waiting for its Freedom of expression.

Many times in the past, when the yearnings of your Heart, leaping into your consciousness, filling your desire body, have wanted you to entertain a new direction or a new perception of life that was seemingly foreign at the time, you ignored it, brushed it away as if it was of no consequence to you. And you might have even questioned if you could trust that it was really a pure Desire of the Flame upon the Altar of the Heart that was placed there by God. Surely, would not God repeat the prompting over and over again so that you would not miss the opportunity? Of course, you would obey God, if only God would make it clearer to you. After all, it is God's fault that you do not hear, that you do not perceive. Somehow God has allowed you to slip into your current state of affairs. And so you are not to blame.

Such faulty self-justification, blessed ones, is the root of the fall of most of the Sons and Daughters of God, refusing to take responsibility for their life, insisting on patterns of ignorance, allowing the Fullness of the Light of God to pass them by. And therefore, decrepitude, old age, pain, and suffering settle in and are then accepted because, after all, these are what everyone experiences. But do you suppose for one moment that your Mighty I AM Presence intended your life to be filled with such struggle, uncomfotability, separation from God?

Those who have knelt before their altar and invoked the Light of the Presence of God into their life have recognized that Presence beginning to work through the patterns of their life and refine them, transmute them, lift the burdens and the weight of self-condemnation. They have discovered, blessed hearts, that the Presence of God is freeing. It does not mean, of course, that you ignore your worldly responsibilities, neglecting to take Authority over your life to bring about the Divine Direction that your Presence has held within your consciousness and placed upon your own Heart Flame, nigh since your first incarnation. For you have begun to realize that to know of the Presence of God requires that you become the Presence of God. And when you have become that Presence, knowing fully and completely that the Presence abides upon the Altar of your Heart and unfurls the Flame of God throughout all of your vehicles, then you are responsible for the fulfillment of the Divine Patterns that your God Presence has entrusted to you individually. And yes, there are those who also come together collectively under the charge of a particular Dispensation who likewise are responsible for the whole of what must be accomplished.

This Action of Akasha, blessed ones, when realized, together with the Achievement of your God Victory, gives you the assuredness within your vehicles of consciousness that truly the Presence of God abides where you are, the Fullness of God responds to your call, to the desiring of your Heart Flame, and you gain the ability to continually refresh these outer vehicles by the Charge of the Light of God. Elevating your consciousness into Akasha, you are able to appropriate the Patterns of the Perfection of the Light of God in all of the forms and formlessness of the creativity that you are to draw to the fore. With each Intonation, each bell tone, there is conveyed to your outer vehicles an Engram, a charge, a substance of the very Presence of God that you can then activate within your own lifestream as the Fullness of your Causal Body Momentums to integrate with this Perfection of God and shower you with all that you require at any moment of any day.

You need not wring your hands in frustration, in anxiety, crying out, "Where art thou, O God?" For God is here. God has always been here. Somehow you have missed it. You have ignored it. You have become deaf and dumb to the very voice of your own God Presence. Thus, the Refiner's Fire must be invoked into your life to consume and transmute all of the records of your ignoring of God, so that you can once more have the charge and vibration of the Presence in your vehicles of consciousness to be able to commune with this Holy of Holies in the Purity of God.

Then when you draw the Sword of Truth or brandish the Shield of Protection, you are filled on the instant with the Light from your Mighty I AM Presence to achieve that dimension of God's Light and Momentum. When you call forth the Healing Currents of the Emerald Ray, you know that that call has been answered, for you have built a Momentum of Holy Communion to establish that Identity in God that you trust and know is responsive to the necessities of life that you call it forth to treat.

But if you have forgotten who you are, if there is a silting over of your consciousness with maya and illusion that you hear so much about, but do not quiet realize how thick and dense that veil can be, how impenetrable when there is not the willingness to allow the Flame upon the Altar of the Heart to engage. Many times the stubbornness of the human creation that has made up this outer identity refuses the Flame of God, ignores the Flame of God, rails against the Flame of God. And thus the Presence of God recedes into the Realms of Perfection, drawing about it the cloak of invisibility until such time as the outer vehicles once more open the door a crack, open a pinhole of Light from the Heart Flame that settles within each of the Flames of Consciousness, so that the Mighty I AM Presence might burst the door open and begin to touch the life of the one who has been so bereft of Light for so long.

This may seem quite dramatic, blessed ones. And surely you might even entertain that it is the story of mythologies throughout the ages. But trust me when I tell you, this is the truth of the circumstances of the many Sons and Daughters of God presently embodied, perhaps even to a greater or lesser degree in your own life.

So how do you approach the Presence of God? How do you establish a Momentum of Light sufficient in your outer vehicles to be able to be aware of this Presence? Will you respond when the Mind of God sends forth its Ray of Illumination into your outer mind, tugging upon your attention to move in one or more directions, to initiate certain activities to be engaged in because the Will of God decrees it is the wise course for you to follow?

Those who are just beginning to have the awareness of how very close and involved is their Presence when they have a fully harmonious body temple and have established a deep Peace are oft times astonished that they did not enter into this communion much sooner in life. For look at all the years wasted, trying first this and then that, putting the attention upon all manner of worldly areas, not really knowing what suited them, but trying on all manner of experimentations. All the while the Presence of God was right there with open Heart, waiting for the opportunity to engage in moving forward the Divine Plan of each one's lifestream — stripping away the human creation and allowing for a true sense of Freedom to engage in life according to the fulfillment of every erg of energy that would stream forth from the Mighty I AM Presence to be deposited within their spiritual centers as the fuel, the desiring, the ability to overcome any lesser state of consciousness because the Presence of God was there.

When you allow for the Intonations of Akasha to reverberate in your life as water droplets, if you will, of the purest Liquid Light, only carrying with them those charged elements that allow you to be anchored in a Realm of Perfection — then, blessed ones, you begin to know what it means to have the clarity of God Vision, God Purity, God Love. For when you stand in the Fullness of the Mother Light and that Light is coursing through your vehicles, there is a Rod of Power that is undeniable, that no human condition can oppose. When you begin to understand how to draw upon it and how to activate the spiritual centers of your being in conjunction with this Rod of Power that is the White Fire of the Mother Light, you begin to have a greater ability to take responsibility for your life, to solve all of its adversities with Wisdom, to heal the body temple of all of its maladies on any of these lower planes of consciousness that have been subjected to a lesser vibration. Then in due course you know the Truth of where the Light, where the Will, where the Love of God comes from.

The Allness of God that comes forth from The One has seen fit to share of its Body Consciousness, so that the Individualization of your own Mighty I AM Presence may have the full Freedom to express all the Attributes of God. In turn, your own God Presence has desired that you, as the incarnate Son and Daughter of God, be vested with the Light of the Christ so that you might have the opportunity to draw upon the Attributes of the Mighty I AM Presence while you go through your earthly pilgrimage, with the wind of the Presence at your back, propelling you forward, with the foundation of the White Cube beneath your feet as the Chief Cornerstone that will not be denied, that allows for the surging of the Mother Light through your vehicles of consciousness. This and so much more because you, blessed hearts, have elected to elevate your consciousness into the Heart of God, to bathe in the showering glory of the Realm of Akasha, and to put on the Garment of Light that allows you to have this Holy Communion through all your days so that you live, move, and have your being in the Fullness of the Light of God always. This is what the Sons and Daughters of God have been given the opportunity to realize.

During this coming Conclave and Acropolis you will be given the opportunity of understanding this teaching and instruction from many vantage points so that as you return to your day-to-day affairs, you will no longer be a child of God pursuing your destiny by the outer wits of your human will, but you will have adopted and learned how to integrate your vehicles of consciousness into the Patterns of the Truth of your Identity in God. Much has been said of the human DNA chain. You, blessed hearts, have the ability to change any mutations of DNA in your outer vehicles back to Perfection, back to the Patterns of the pure Identity of your Mighty I AM Presence, as is the Destiny of your lifestream! You can overcome any discordant patterns of illness, propensities to this or that human creation. For the Hand of God cannot be stayed. It is All-Powerful, and your Presence is the Source of that True Identity.

Let the Light of God carry you into the Fullness of who you are and allow for Akasha to surround you, to be present and active right where you are, ready to deposit into your world all the God Perfection you require ready to stream forth the Virtues of your Christhood and exhibit the God Qualities that you call forth in the Light of the Christ.

I, the Goddess of Light, invite you into the Fullness of Akasha to experience here and now the Charge and the Momentum of the Holy Angels encircling roundabout, to assist in holding this forcefield in the Fullness of the Perfection of God while you allow your consciousness to penetrate into the Mighty I AM Presence' flaming Heart and know who you truly are.
